Online Handbook of Argumentation for AI

OHAAI aims to provide an open access and curated platform for the argumentation research community to keep track of the latest PhD work on the theory and application of argumentation in AI.

OHAAI seeks short papers (extended abstracts) that present emerging research in argumentation. We encourage submissions describing work-in-progress or recently completed work during PhD studies.

OHAAI will publish the peer reviewed papers on ArXiv. Check out the first volume!

Important Dates:
