

1st International Symposium on Sustainable Rural Built Environments

4 - 6 February, 2020

FROM ENGAGEMENT TO IMPACT

School of Architecture and Built Environment, Deakin University (Geelong, Australia) and Kulliyah of Architecture and Environmental Design, International Islamic University Malaysia (Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia), will jointly host the "1st International Symposium on Sustainable Rural Built Environments (SRBE): From Engagement To Impact". The symposium launches Intercultural Dialogue through Design (iDiDe), established 2010 as a global student engagement platform for architecture and built environment disciplines, into the realm of socially responsible research.

The symposium is concerned with case studies, practices, research and educational research pertaining to social and cultural needs, sustainability, and community engagement in design and construction in a rural context from all parts of the world with special emphasis on translating this work from engagement into impact. The papers will be peer-reviewed prior to inclusion in the symposium proceedings. Selected paper authors will be invited to contribute book chapters to be published by IGI Global on "Sustainable Rural Built Environments: From Engagement to Impact."
