Rhythm' 2021, this year has the theme "The Rhythm of Happiness - a Multidisciplinary Exploration". Rhythm is a part of our very existence. How does rhythm contribute to happiness? How does happiness lead to rhythm? A search for the answer would lead one to multiple disciplines – bio-rhythms, neuro-rhythms, cosmic rhythms, ecological rhythms, socio-cultural rhythms, rhythms in music, art and culture, and rhythms in our everyday life. In each of these areas, rhythms contribute significantly, they also inter-play and impact our state of happiness and wellbeing in interrelated ways. This conference proposes to explore these fundamental questions in the areas cited above, as well as in ways that many of them are interrelated.

Call for Papers

We invite extended abstracts of original, unpublished work from those who wish to present their work in areas relevant to the theme of Rhythm' 2021, as stated hereunder. Peer reviewed papers will be selected for Oral/ Poster Presentations. Submissions to be made through EasyChair.
