

ELINET LEM

EARLY CAREER RESEARCHER WORKSHOP

23 May, 2025

Online

This workshop is an opportunity for ECRs in language education and multilingualism to present their research to an international academic audience, engage in discussions, receive feedback, and connect with peers and experts. With this workshop, we aim to promote multilingual education research and policy development by engaging in interdisciplinary dialogue, and we encourage collaboration and professional networking.

We invite abstracts from ECRs under the following themes related to LEM.

Submission deadline:

31 March, 2025
